SPARTACANS AND BOLSHEVIKI PLAN WAR

[illegible] Revolters Invoke Aid Of Russians In Scheme To Make Bolshevik Rule For Europe

SEE YEARS OF STRIFE AHEAD

BY FRANK J. TAYLOR
Copyright 1919 by United Press

Berlin, by Courier to Paris, March [illegible]— Spartacans are planning to launch their revolution by the first of April. This revolution, it was learned from the Spartacans themselves, is intended as the signal for a general Bolshevik uprising through central Europe. Russian Bolsheviki have been asked to start an invasion to insure the revolution's success.

The Spartacans expect to open hostilities without warning. Since the general strike preceded the last revolution it gave the government time to prepare. They are gathering weapons, ammunition and food which they are storing in secret rendezvous. The Spartacans recently sent delegates to Moscow in an aeroplane they had stolen. This method of communication was employed because the frontier was closed. They asked the Bolsheviki to assist in the pending revolution by throwing large forces of the Soviet into central Europe.

Spartacan leaders said it will take ten years for the Bolsheviki to dominate Europe completely. They are laying their plans accordingly. The government under Minister Noske is massing weapons and ammunition and strengthening the arsenals in preparation for the struggle.

U. S. OFFICIALS IN BUDAPEST ASSURED FROM MOLESTATION

By United Press

Paris, March 25—Two British monitors have arrived in Budapest after being fired on en route, it was reported in dispatches received thru diplomatic channels today. They proceeded to the Hungarian capital from Belgrade. A British patrol boat was said to have been seized by the Hungarians but was returned later with an apology.

Reports received in official circles declare that the American representative in Budapest has been assured all possible protection and may be asked to remain. Martial law has been proclaimed in Hungary and death penalties have been prescribed for armed resistance, robbery and plundering. Hundreds of former Hungarians who were in prison in Russia are said to be returning along the Carpathian frontier, spreading Bolsheviki propaganda to the peasants.

LITTLE HANDS FROM ACROSS THE SEA REACH OUT TO YOU

The Clearfield Committee of the Fatherless Children of France still has a number of children to be "adopted" by good eople of Clearfield. Think how interesting it will be to get letters from a little girl or boy in France full of love and gratitude for your help and sympathy. It only costs 10c a day, $36.50 a year to experience this pleasure. This 10c a day means the difference between hunger and enough, between cold and comfort, between a mother's care in the home and an orphan asylum. There is Rose Cholet, aged 12, Leon Bonnet, 4, and Socrate Charpentrat, 3, and many others who are waiting for your help. Let us know soon, if you want to help in this way. Every day means something to the little orphans.

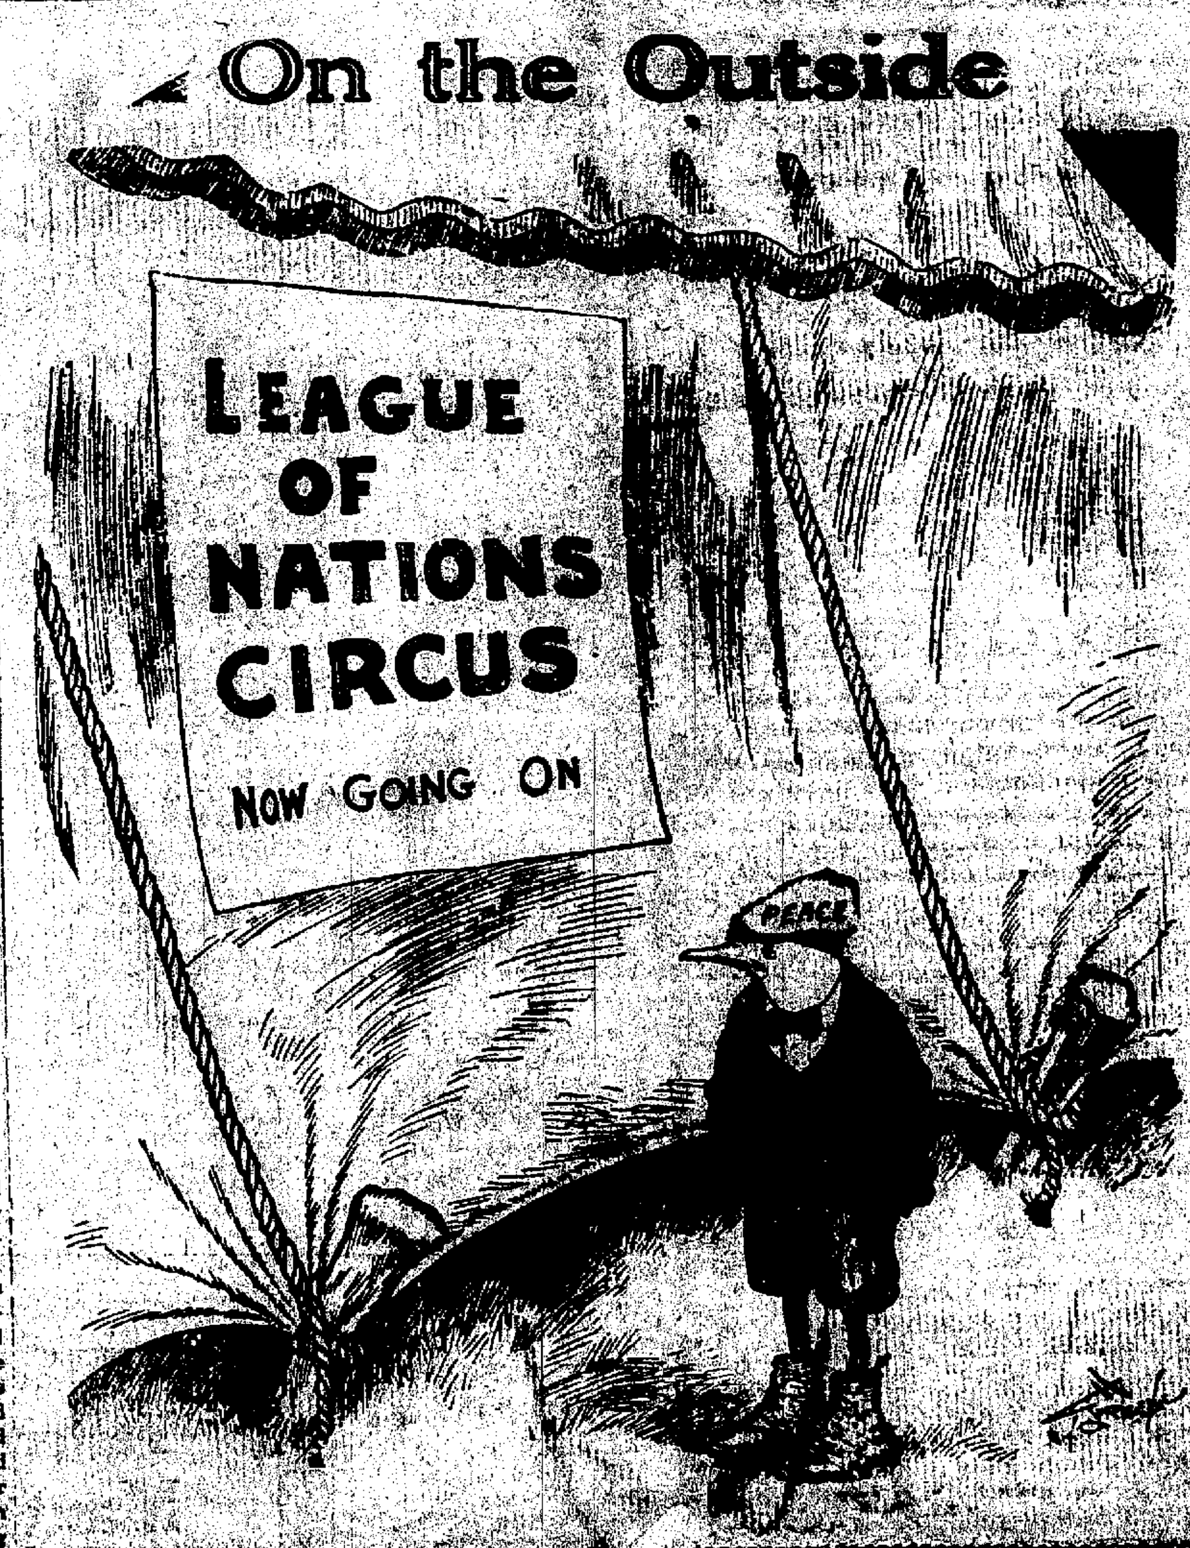
DEMONSTRATIONS IN HONOR OF VELERA RIGIDLY FORBIDDEN

By United Press

Dublin, March 25—A special order issued today by the British military officials prohibits the holding of any meetings or parades tomorrow. Announcement was made by Sinn Fein headquarters recently that President Edward D'Valera who has been in hiding since he escaped from Lincoln prison would come back tomorrow and take his place as head of the Irish republic.

FROM HERE AND THERE

The greatest tea-drinkers in the world are the Australians, who consume about eight pounds per head of the population every year.



DO YOU REMEMBER COXEY'S ARMY

Massillon, O., March 24—Twenty-five years ago today the eyes of the nation were centered on Massillon, for here there was mobilizing on that day Coxey's famous "Army of the Commonweal," in readiness for starting on the morrow on the march to the nation's capital to demand of the President and Congress that they set the times aright by the enactment of various laws, particularly in the matter of legal tender.

Despite the ridicule which was heaped upon it "Coxey's Army" attracted an amount of public attention that has never been bestowed on any other popular agitation in the United Sttes. The newspapers of America and of Europe printed columns of matter concerning the movement, and when the "army" was ready to begin its march there were more nwspaper correspondents on hand to accompany it than there were members of the "army." The latter comprised a grotesque aggregation recruited from all parts of the country and from all walks of life. The times are favorable to the movement. The effects of the panic and industrial depression of 1893 were still sharply felt, and the appeal of the organizers of the movement that something radical must be done to remedy the conditions met with a ready response.

The "army" took the name of Jacob S. Coxey a well-to-do business man of Massillon who conceived the idea of the march on Washington. Second in command, and the real organizer and chief marshal was Carl Browne, a picturesque Westerner, who many years before in California, had been associated with Dennis Kearney, the anti-Chinese agitator.

On March 25, 1894 Coxey's army moved from Massillon to Canton, as the first step in its march. Several thousand were in the aggregation, butthe most of them, as it afterward proved, were there more out of curiosity than with any serious object in view. "General" Coxey accompanied the marchers in a buggy, while Browne, clad in the regulation cowboy outfit, led the way on his charger. The young daughter of Coxey was another picturesque figure of the caravan.

By the time the army reached Pittsburgh it had lost more than half of its members. The weather was disagreeable and marching through mud and rain was not to the liking of the marchers. Much dissatisfaction also was expressed over the failure of Coxey to open his purse and provide the wherewithal to purchase food, tobacco, etc., for his "soldiers."

On April 29 the remnant of the army encamped in the suburbs of Washington in readiness for the invasion of the capital. Then came the fiasco which gave a true Gilbertian finale to the whole affair. When the "army" approached the capitol, Major Moore, the Washington chief of police, invoked aganst the invaders a law which prohibited public meetings and speaking on the Capitol steps without permission of the Vice President and Speaker. Browne and Coxey tried to get the consent of Vice President Stevenson and Speaker Crisp, unsuccessfully.

When Browne arrived he wore a buckskin "Buffalo Bill" costume to attract attention and draw the police after him in a chase over the southeast lawn of the Capitol among the trees and shrubs. The police, thinking Coxey was with Browne, "beat the bush" for both, but Coxey, who was a small man dressed conventionally, succeeded in eluding the police until he reached the Senate steps.

A great cheer told Browne of the success of his ruse, and then he ran for the House steps, as had been agreed between the two. He was caught by the police and [illegible] convicted of "walking on the grass," [illegible] Coxey being convicted of being an accessory. Both were sent to jail for twenty days.

After these stirring days Browne married the daughter of Coxey and took up his home in Napa County Cal., where he is said to have prospered. Coxey returned to his home at Massillon, where he is now rated as one of the town's most prosperous citizens.

AMERICA'S IMMORTALS

HARRY J. DAVIS,
Corporal, Company D, 60th Infantry.

Corp. Davis received the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism in action at Cunel, France, October 14, 1918. While the advance of his platoon was being held up by deadly enfilading fire of the enemy, Corp. Davis voluntarily rushed over open ground, through direct machine gun fire, for a distance of over 100 meters; and, with the aid of his bayonet, attacked the nest. He killed both of the gunners, thereby silencing the fire, but, during the combat, he himself was severely wounded. It was due to his prompt and fearless action that further advance of his platoon was made possible. Corp. Davis' home is in Philadelphia.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE MEETS HERE TOMORROW

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Conference of the Huntingdon Presbytery will meet Wednesday and Thursday, March 26 and 27, at the Presbyterian church. The conference opens Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock with short service and addresses in the church. The speakers will be returned missionaries from Siam. The Young Ladies of the Mary Cole McDowell chapter, Westminster Guild are preparing a pageant to be given Wednesday evening. On Thursday afternoon the Junior Mission Band and Light Bearers will also give a pageant.

The business session of the conference will start Thursday morning at 9 o'clock and continue all day with addresses on different phases of missionary work.

A cordial invitation is extended to all who may be interested to attend these sessions.

J. C. BARCLAY DIED AT EARLY HOUR TODAY

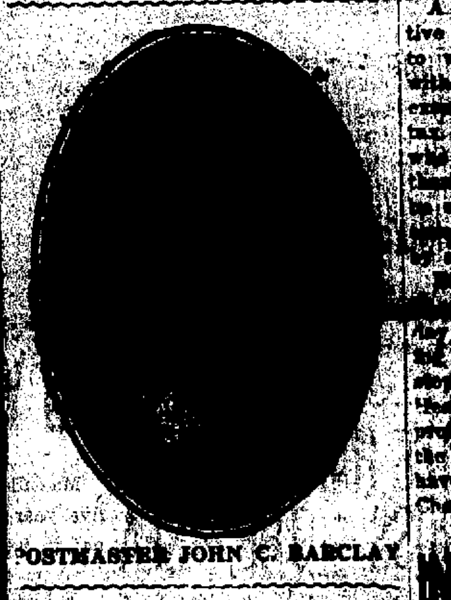
COLLAPSED ON THE STREET

Postmaster John C. Barclay died at the County National Bank at 2 o'clock this morning.

'Squire Barclay, who was stopping at the Windsor Hotel, suffered a violent caughing spell during the night and being unable to sleep got up and putting his street clothes on over his night clothes walked out into the open air for relief.

He came up Market street to the County National Bank corner where he stopped and talked to J. J. Bloom, the night watchman, who was sweeping the sidewalk. He complained to Mr. Bloom of feeling unwell and after stopping possibly five minutes proceeded on up street toward the postoffice.

When he reached Howe's Jewelry store he became very much worse and sat down at the entrance to the store. He called to Mr. Bloom who hastened to his side and then assisted him back to the bank. Drs. Waterworth and Frantz were summoned and when the former arrived at the bank he saw at a glance that Mr. Barclay was a very sick man and immediately called for the ambulance to take him to the hospital. The patient suddenly collapsed and died before the ambulance could get to the scene.



POSTMASTER JOHN C. BARCLAY

John C. Barclay was a native of Indiana county and also spent several years of his life around Punxsutawney. He came to Clearfield some thirty years ago as a school teacher locating in the Third Ward, then West Clearfield borough. He was a staunch Democrat and took an active part in politics. Shortly after taking up his residence in West Clearfield he was elected Justice of the Peace and continued in that office until apponted Postmaster. He was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Prothonotary in 1892 and was defeated for the office by a very narrow margin by the late D. J. Gingery. He served as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1912 being a member of the famous Baltimore convention which nominated Woodrow Wilson over Champ Clark.

In addition to serving as Justice of the Peace Mr. Barclay also engaged successfully in the insurance business. He was a careful business man and amassed considerable property.

'Squire Barclay was an honest, upright man and a good citizen. Genial and generous hearted he was well and most favorably known through this section and his sudden death will bring sorrow to the hearts of many warm friends.

His wife preceded him to the grave by a little more than twelve months His only son Byron M. Barclay was electrocuted while at work as a telephone lineman at Barnesboro, Pa., along about 1913. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Lillian Kelley, wife of Dr. Thomas J. Kelley, of Philadelphia. One brother, George Barclay, of Punxsutawney also survive him, as well as a couple of sisters who live in that section.

Postmaster Barclay was well and favorably known in fraternal circles having been chosen Worshipful Master of Clearfield Lodge, F. & A. M. and High Priest of Clearfield Chapter of Royal Arch Masons as well as being a member of Commandery No. 74 at Philipsburg. Only last evening he spent a couple of hours in the local Masonic rooms and was in the best of mood and feeling. The dozen of brethren who spent the social hour with him were shocked this [illegible] of his untimely end.

OBJECT OF THOUGHT ON ACCOMPLISHMENT

THOUGHT WE COULD NOT FINANCE WAR

CHANGED OUR MIND AND WE DID IT

LET US THINK WE CAN TAKE THE NEXT

The state of our mind has a tremendous influence on our actions and our accomplishments and the state of mind of Patriotic Clearfield countain today very similar to what it was just after the war was declared and we began to get a realization of its responsibilities. We embarked in a thousand enterprises other than that would help Germany with little thought as to money. It seemed to be just a matter of turning a few divisions over there to "plow" through the Hindenburg line and establishing resorts on the Rhine. That state of mind was the best asset that America had. Our wealth, our regular army, our navy, our ingenuity and our big industrial plants would have done us nothing had it not been for the state of mind of the boys who went "over there" with the idea of "finishing the job."

When we entered the war, we were in our belief that we could whip Germany but we were not sure that we could finance things which were absolutely necessary to provide the sinews of fighting. Emperor William, for instance, we were convinced at the big ship program we scoffed at the idea of putting a million men to Europe and keeping them there. When we were asked to raise Billion Dollars in the form of a Liberty Loan., well we simply said it couldn't be done. We believed what we said. The man who had never saved a cent found their earnings paid no attention to the first appeals to help buy bonds. Bonds had never entered into their vocabulary but they could not associate buying with working a day for wages or by the month for a small salary. They were made for the man with money and for the banks. In many instances and men of means had that view but they did not agree with the latent pat riotism of the average man who wanted a share in the game. This view almost spelled the doom of the first loan, a great lesson was learned with the coming of the second loan, Mr. Ordinary Citizen right in line buying bonds. There is no need to recall the incidents pertaining to the financing of the war thru each succeeding loan campaign. It is fresh in the memory of all.

Today the war is over. There is just as much money in circulation as when the first loan was floated—and more. That old state of mind has returned to hamper the outcome of this, the next loan. It is surprising Liberty Loan. $t is surprising how many men are unconsciously hampering the success of the loan by assuming to speak for the other fellow, and saying, "it is going to be hard to float".

Rgarding the First Loan, these fellows said "it can't be accomplished." But it was.

Regarding the next loan, coming next month, they say, "you can't do it." But we will

And when we say "we" we mean you and you and you, because you and I will have to submit to a change of our state of mind before the launching of the next loan. There is nothing to indicate failure of the next loan except the state of mind. We are masters of our own minds. Let us get the proper mood and make of the next loan a success and a comparatively easy job.

SUNDAY MEETINGS POPULAR

The sunshine and fine weather did not interfere or stop a large crowd of 200 boys and girls and their parents from attending the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon addressed by Secretary Gardner. He took his subject from the book of Zacharias, 8th chapter and 5th verse. There will be boys and girls playing in the streets of Heaven. He paid a great tribute to the boys and girls of our town and his admiration of persons here who would give, sell and do anything that would harm or sear the character and souls of our boys and girls.

He closed his address with a strong plea for the fathers and mothers and girls to assist and use their vote, power and influence in deathless antagnism against the saloon and cigarettes and sin and agencies who would ruin or break our homes, schools and churches. At the close he invited all the young men present to come up to the platform and sign the anti-cigarette pledge card. Over fifty young men and boys signed it and promised not to smoke any more poisonous cigarettes. The meeting next Sunday afternoon will be a mixed meeting for everybody. Mr. Graffius will take for his subject "Philip Nolan, The Man Without a Country." Mr. H. D McNard, a Lyceum reader and entertainer, will give a sacred reading on "Wayward Joe.'

SCHOOL NOTES

The Junior girls have organized their basket ball team and after getting in trim they will as a matter of accommodation to other teams demonstrate the game as should be played by girls. They have the advantage of a large floor that will give a good chance for passing and also when they get on a floor over two by four they will not get all out of puff.

The victory over Altoona was celebrated in chapel. The new "slam bang" yell was prohibited because Mr. Andes said he weighted twenty tons and we might wake up in the gymnasium. But it worked on Altoona—ask their coach.

AMERICANISM ABOVE POLITICS

Washington March 25.—(Secial correspondence.—Noting that the President is reported to be in favor of a non-partisan discussion of the league of nations Senators Poindexter and Borah, Republicans, Senator Reed, Democrat, and Mr. Gorge Wharton Pepper, a lawyer of Philadelphia have drawn preliminary plans for the formation of a national non-partisan organization to oppose the acceptance of the constitution of the league of nations as now written. To further emphasize the non-political character of the new association, Henry Watterson, former publisher of the Louisville Courier Journal and a leading Democrat has been chosen president It is said that many Senators who have voiced their opposition to the league will join with the organizers of the anti-league forces in opposing its adoption.

It is announced that a statement soon will be issued outlining the purposes of the organization, one of which will be the coordination of the local bodies throughout the country that have been formed to combat the league. Speakers' bureaus probably will be established, and an intensive campaign of publicity conducted designed to offset the enormous amount of pro-league propaganda that is being circulatd among the people. Although it is understood there is no agreement on the subject the suggestion has been made to send representatives to Paris during the progress of the peace negotiations. Headquarters of the organization probably will be established in New York and voluntary contributions will be relied upon to support its activities.

While the Republicans have taken the lead in opposition to the President's proposed league, they welcome to their ranks in this crisis all men of every party who put their Americanism above political considerations. Already Democrats throughout the country like many of the leaders of that party in the Senate have refused to follow the President into the international chaos where he proposes to lead us and have boldly joined with the Republicans in steadfastly refusing to desert the principles that have brought this nation to the commanding position she now holds among the countries of the world.

Men like Senator Reed, of Missouri, Col. Harvey, of Harvey's Weekly, Col. Watterson, and other leaders who have contributed to the political strength of the Democratic party, have not hesitated to subscribe to the doctrine of "America first," and are now bending their every energy to defeat the sister schemes of their erstwhile party leader They, with the Republicans believe that all that is necessary to preserve our institutions from the taint of internationalism is to call the attention of the people to the provisions of the league's constitution and the inevitable destructive effect its adoption will have upon our form of government. To that end the new publicity organization has been formed with the certain knowledge that as soon as the people are aware of its purposes they will eagerly appeal to it for authoritative and non-partisan information regarding the most momentous question with which they ever have been confronted.

After sugarless, wheatless and fatless days we are to have lightless days.

High prices used to be asked "on account of the war." Now they are just asked.

The war certainly cannot be blamed for an increase in the price of snow shovels.

And now coffee is going higher. Is there a conspiracy on to force us to drink water?

How can a full stomached ever feel easy in the presence of shoplifters and pickpockets?

Reconstruction may be relied on to prevent any more workless days for years to come.

Germany's hatred of England increases, which fact in nowise distresses England.

One inexplicable phase of human nature is why people will pay 10 cents to see a dog-faced girl.

France and England have a bill of $100,000,000,000 against Germany. If this is not enough to keep the Boche at work for the rest of his life, a dozen other allies will put in their little claims.

In Cologne, many ex-German soldiers have resumed their former occupation of waiters. A post of satisfaction, of course, since it will give them opportunity of practicing tyranny over their conquerors.

It is gratifying to learn that order has been restored in Cologne, but one trusts that the camouflage for covering up the lack of a bath which takes its name from the famous city was all poured into the Rhine ere the rioting stopped.

Yesterday a good Maxwell —Today a Better One

THAT is the policy of the Maxwell Motor Company.

It began five years ago on a single chassis plan and today 300,000 Maxwells have been built on this program.

Not 300,000 Maxwells identically alike—for that would be admitting that the car has never improved in five years' time.

More than 1000 refinements have been made in the Maxwell.

But the original chassis plan was not changed. It has simply grown better as the days went by.

The logic of building one thing and thus building it well is too clear, too sound, too emphatic in results to argue against.

Like any fine piece of machinery the Maxwell seems to improve with age.

It runs on and on without end. We have never heard of a Maxwell salvaged.

There is no car with a better road ability record. And it saves many a thrifty dollar by always at the repair shop.

This Maxwell you see today is not a new Maxwell, though many persons have thought so. It has been so much improved in appearance that our contemporaries in the trade repeatedly refer to it as the new Maxwell.

However, good looks have not in any way handicapped its running. And the latter is the main thing, after all, in a motor car.

EFFECT OF COLOR UPON THE DURABILITY OF PAINT.

Property owners who may have under consideration the painting of dwellings and other structures should remember that more durable results are obtained when tinted paints are used. Permanent coloring materials which have been ground by machine into a high grade white paint base have the effect of preventing "chalking" and "checking," two defects which are often observed when white paints are used.

GREAT SEASON IN SIGHT FOR BASEBALL

With Big League Stars Being Mustered Out of Service People Will Want Sport

MANAGERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

By Tom Lewis
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 24—The old Hot Stove League went out of commission today. The major league baseball clubs are beginning their southward trek and joy rules the heart of the baseball fan.

The clubs are leaving for their respective training camps in fairly good condition, despite the depletions in their ranks caused by the great war, and many of the managers of the big league outfits are optimistic concerning the future. All are agreed, however, that pennant prospects may be affected by the late arrival here of the overseas fighters.

Grover Alexander of the Cubs, for example, may get back in May. Again, he may not arrive in this country before June or July. In normal times Alexander can safely be depended upon to roll up 25 or 30 victories for his club. According to the war department's schedules he is due to reach home with his organization some time in May. But this is far from authentic. Originally, the government planned to bring back 250,000 a month, but this schedule has not been maintained. Three months after the armistice was signed less than 300,000 of the fighting men had been sent home.

Alexander is one among many, and it is safe to predict that big leaguers will be dropping in on their respective managers practically all summer.

This condition may have some good results, however, for the returning men will be in good physical condition and a number of them may arrive on the baseball scene just in time to hop into uniform, seize the old pill and pull a distraught manager out of an extremely embarrassing situation. Complications will arise, as a matter of course, for where one club may draw several top notch players from the ranks of the army at a time when good talent is badly needed, other clubs, less fortunate, will be obliged to tag along until the arrival of the later transports bringing the stars back to their native soil.

John J. McGraw, of the New York Nationals, leaving with his club for the Florida training camp, could not conceal his unbounded joy over the return of Christy Mathewson. "Big Six," in the role of coach and associate manager, will be a tower of strength to the Giants and McGraw has indicated his intention of placing the famous pitcher in a still better position before many months have passed. The Giant leader is anxious to devote more of his time to the business interests of his club and when he decides to step down Matty will go up.

Interest in the national pastime is particularly keen this year, and the baseball managers and owners have predicted a record-breaking season.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mrs. Wm. Bush of Turnpike avenue, was greatly surprised last evening when twenty of the members of her Sunday school class and a few of her intimate friends called at her home to remind her that it was her birthday. The evening was spent in a social manner, music both vocal and instrumental was rendered by Miss Elizabeth Heck and Mrs. C. G. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson delighted the crowd with several of her pleasing recitations. Delightful refreshments were served after which everyone joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." At the conclusion Mrs. Snavely made a very touching prayer asking God to bless Mrs. Bush and her home.

The burglar who has his eye on any of the treasures in the British museum would stand little chance of succeeding, for, after the building is closed to the public, every gallery and room is carefully examined and then locked up. An hour later every room is again searched, thus prociding a double precaution againse fire and burglary. It takes more than an hour merely to examine and lock up the rooms every night. Every one of the policemen who helps to guard the building is also a trained firemand and the hose is so arranged that there is not a spot in the building which these policemen could not swamp with water within two minutes.

I saw it in The Progress.

MILD? Sure!—and yet they "SATISFY"

the night

"Satisfy"—what does that mean?

Chesterfields touch the smoke-spot; which is another way of saying that they let you know you are smoking—they "Satisfy"!

Still, they're mild.

The "just-right" blend of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos does it—and the blend can't be copied. Today, try Chesterfields.

FOR LUMBAGO

Try Musterole. See How Quickly It Relieves

You just rub Musterole in briskly, and usually the pain is gone—a delicious, soothing comfort comes to take its place.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Use it instead of mustard plaster. Will not blister.

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients.

They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Always dependable.

30 and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

JUNIOR C. H. S. vs. Y. TEAM

Well at last a game has been arranged between the Junior C. H. S. girls and the Y. team. It is to take place at the High school Gym Thursday evening after school.

The Y girls are beginning to see that it doesn't pay to brag. They thought that they were champions but as the Tyrone paper said, "They are now ex-champions." After Thursday night's contest they will be more ex-champs than now according to Shakespeare. Maybe after this game they will see where it pays to strengthen up.

Probably the worst landslide in modern times was the fall of the Rossberg in Switzerland. The Rossberg is made of sandstone and "conglomerate." The whole thing went suddenly, filled a large valley and within a few minutes had completely buried three villages and 900 people.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Charles Hooven has purchased the property on corner of Scofield and Susquehanna avenue, South Side from W. B. Smith. Consideration $1,600. The dwelling is occupied at present by John Halton.

Charlie Caldwell, son of Billy Caldwell, had a horse badly injured Saturday. A lot of boys were throwing stones and the animal became frightened and started to get away and in so doing upset the vehicle, causing one of the shafts to pierce its side.

Mrs. S. J. Richards is selling off some of her furniture and will move to the South Side, occupying a part of the Archie Bloom property.

Mrs. Maud Pride has accepted a clerical position in the undertaking establishment of James L. Smith.

The latest news obtainable from the Methodist conference is that Rev. Max Lantz will not be returned to the Curwensville charge, but will go either to Lewistown, Mt. Union or Altoona.

The Penna. Hide and Leather company has a goodly number of orders booked, but are handicapped in getting them on the market owing to the fact that the plant is unable to secure the proper coloring matter, although barrels of it have been on the way for a month or more.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Russell, accompanied by their son William, left yesterday morning for Atlantic City, where Mr. Russell will remain until his health is fully recovered.

Miss Mary Kelly, who is attending college at Rochelle, N. Y., came home yesterday for a few weeks visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kelly.

CARNWATH

Andrew Braid succeeded in bringing down the fox that had been giving him so much trouble and costing him so much ammunition.

Mrs. John Berger has returned from Baltimore where she was visiting her invalid sister. We regret that her report is not very encouraging.

The Carnwath boys are looking forward to the time when they shall have a community building. The coal company has in mind a building that will serve their every need. Supt. James Gray feels that money invested in the welfare of men will give its returns, not only in spirited work but in community interests.

Now is the time to get the drag on the roads. We often wonder why this is not attended to at the proper time.

A large number of requests have have come for a Summer Normal school at this place. Prof. Norris is considering the matter very seriously.

A new plan has been adopted in the public school for the eighth grade The building is kept open each evening of the week from seven until nine o'clock. The eighth grade children may come and do their studying in the school building and when help is needed the teacher is present to render the same. Several of the adults of the town are taking advantage of this opportunity to study and receive help.

The Carnwath school children contributed six dollars ($6.00) to the American committee for relief in the Near East.

Messrs. Kerr and George Sloppy gave our town a very brief social call last week.

Doubtless there will be much farming done in Carnwath this spring, unless the mines start to work full time. Already the garden rake, the robin and blue bird, and the smell of burning rags tell us that spring is here.

The National American Woman Suffrage association has invited the women voters of the United States to join forces with the association at its convention in St. Louis this month as a most fitting memorial to the half century of suffrage campaigns which it has conducted. Except for the women of Wyoming—the state which, as a territory enfranchised its women, and refused to come into the Union without them—every voting women in the United States has won her suffrage under the banner of the National Association.

GORNS, CALLUSES QUIT QUICK!

Two Drops of "Gets-It" Will do it

Ever hand-carve your toe with a knife trying to get rid of a corn? Ever use scissors and snip off part of the corn too close to the quick? Ever pack up your toe with "contraptions" and plasters as though you were packing a glass vase for parcel post? Ever use greasy ointments that rub off on your stockings? Ever use sticky tape that gets jerked off you you put your stocking off? Kind o' foolish, when 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" on any corn or callus gives it a quick, painless, peaceful, dead-sure funeral. Why putter and suffer "Gets-It" stops corn pains, it lets you work, smile and dance, even with corns. It's the common-sense way, the only simple, easy way—peels corns off like a banana peel. Used by millions. It never fails.

"Gets-It" the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Manufactured by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Farmer Jones Springs a Surprise

"What on earth have you b[illegible]r home in the car, exclaimed Nancy Jones as Farmer Jones parks his car out by the "R. F. D." box.

"Wait 'till you see, Nancy."

"Looks as though it might be a piano, or an organ, or something like that," replied the excited Mrs. Jones.

"No it's not a piano, nor an organ, Nancy, but it's something for you to play with, and I miss my guess if you don't like it's music", says Farmer Jones.

"Sakes alive, Jason, I'm just burning up to know what you brought.

We'll have her unloaded in a few minutes and then you'll see."

About ten minutes later a beautiful Model "A" Napanee Dutch Kitchenet was deposited in a farm kitchen nearly as big as the whole of an average city flat.

"Saw it down at Leitzingers store, thought it was about time you had something to help out with your work, Nancy. I've got an automobile and a tractor and all kinds of implement and machinery contraptions to make my work easier. I've ditched plows and quit using horses and only use up-to-date farm equipment. We're goin to give you the new labor-saving equipment too, Nancy."

There's a chance for you farmer men. Drive the old car down town and buy your hard-working wife the one thing that will serve to most lighten the burden of her kitchen drudgery—a Napanee Dutch Kitchenet. Take it home in the car and give her a real happy surprise. Then see how she'll apreciate it—and your thoughtfulness.

Why can't Clearfield borough start repaving South Second street and make work for idle men?

DOCTOR SAYS ONE LUNG IS HEALED AND OTHER NEARLY SO

Urges patient to keep up the treatment that did the work.

"I had consumption of the lungs for six years. I had an outside sleeping and dressing room and remained outdoors the year 'round, all the time. I used six raw eggs a day and about a gallon of milk. I had a great many hemorrhages, and was just barely able to walk around the house a little.

"I began taking Miller's Emulsion in June. I have now taken my eighteenth bottle and feel greatly benefitted. I had my doctor examine my lungs the other day and he said that one of them is entirely healed up and the other one nearly so. He urges me to keep on using Miller's Emulsion, which I intend to do. My original weight was 170 pounds. I have remained about that for years and now weigh 195 pounds and feel almost as strong and well as I ever did. My only regret is that I didn't hear of Miller's Emulsion six years ago."—Grady Dees, Atlanta, Ark.

Miller's Emulsion would surely do as much for you as it did in the case above, easy for you to find out. It is at least worth a trial if you want to benefit you, and we suggest that you try it.

Miller's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritious food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, driving away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Miller's Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the throat and lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and indigestion are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It works like magic in coughs and colds.

Miller's is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Miller's Emulsion under our guarantee—Take six bottles home and use according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Miller Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Leonards Drug Store.

See the New and Better Columbus

YOU have probably heard and know something about that special new wagon feature, the International fifth wheel (patent applied for) which you can find only on International Harvester wagons.

There are several other new and strong points on the Columbus for you to look over when you come in next time. There is the convenient link end box rod. This rod couples in the center, has threaded handle nuts at each end, can be easily tightened at either end, hangs fast to the wagon when uncoupled, and can be entirely removed easily. No more lost or bent end rods or stripped threads when your wagon is the new Columbus.

The accurately-fitting skein and skein box, the gear construction, the straight-grained oak bounds—everything new and better, from tongue to tail board, are right here waiting inspection. Come in and see a real up-to-date wagon.

U. S. OFFICIALS IN BUDAPEST ASSURED FROM MOLESTATION

By United Press

Paris, March 25—Two British monitors have arrived in Budapest after being fired on en route, it was reported in dispatches received thru diplomatic channels today. They proceeded to the Hungarian capital from Belgrade. A British patrol boat was said to have been seized by the Hungarians but was returned later with an apology.

Reports received in official circles declare that the American representative in Budapest has been assured all possible protection and may be asked to remain. Martial law has been proclaimed in Hungary and death penalties have been prescribed for armed resistance, robbery and plundering. Hundreds of former Hungarians who were in prison in Russia are said to be returning along the Carpathian frontier, spreading Bolsheviki propaganda among peasants.

[illegible]S AND BOLSHEVIKI PLAN WAR

[illegible] Seeks Aid Of Russians In Scheme To Make Bolshevik Rule For Europe

SEE YEARS OF STRIFE AHEAD

BY FRANK J. TAYLOR
Copyright 1919 by United Press

Berlin, by Courier to Paris, March 25—Spartacans are planning to launch their revolution by the first of April. This revolution, it was learned from the Spartacans themselves, is intended as the signal for a general Bolshevik uprising through central Europe. Russian Bolsheviki have been asked to start an invasion to insure the revolution's success.

The Spartacans expect to open hostilities without warning. Since the general strike preceded the last revolution it gave the government time to prepare. They are gathering weapons, ammunition and food which they are storing in secret rendezvous. The Spartacans recently sent delegates to Moscow in an aeroplane they had stolen. This method of communication was employed because the frontier was closed. They asked the Bolsheviki to assist in the pending revolution by throwing large forces of the Soviet into central Europe.

Spartacan leaders said it will take ten years for the Bolsheviki to dominate Europe completely. They are laying their plans accordingly. The government under Minister Noske is massing weapons and ammunition and strengthening the arsenals in preparation for the struggle.

LITTLE HANDS FROM ACROSS THE SEA REACH OUT TO YOU

The Clearfield Committee of the Fatherless Children of France still has a number of children to be "adopted" by good people of Clearfield. Think how interesting it will be to get letters from a little girl or boy in France full of love and gratitude for your help and sympathy. It only costs 10c a day, $36.50 a year to experience this pleasure. This 10c a day means the difference between hunger and enough, between cold and comfort, between a mother's care in the home and an orphan asylum. There is Rose Cholet, aged 12, Leon Bonnet, 4, and Socrate Charpentrat, 3, and many others who are waiting for your help. Let us know soon, if you want to help in this way. Every day means something to the little orphans.

FROM HERE AND THERE

The greatest tea-drinkers in the world are the Australians, who consume about eight pounds per head of the population every year.

DO YOU REMEMBER COXEY'S ARMY

Massillon, O., March 24—Twenty-five years ago today the eyes of the nation were centered on Massillon, for here there was mobilizing on that day Coxey's famous "Army of the Commonweal," in readiness for starting on the morrow on the march to the nation's capital to demand of the President and Congress that they set the times aright by the enactment of various laws, particularly in the matter of legal tender.

Despite the ridicule which was heaped upon it "Coxey's Army" attracted an amount of public attention that has never been bestowed on any other popular agitation in the United Sttes. The newspapers of America and of Europe printed columns of matter concerning the movement, and when the "army" was ready to begin its march there were more nwspaper correspondents on hand to accompany it than there were members of the "army." The latter comprised a grotesque aggregation recruited from all parts of the country and from all walks of life. The times are favorable to the movement. The effects of the panic and industrial depression of 1893 were still sharply felt, and the appeal of the organizers of the movement that something radical must be done to remedy the conditions met with a ready response.

The "army" took the name of Jacob S. Coxey a well-to-do business man of Massillon who conceived the idea of the march on Washington. Second in command, and the real organizer and chief marshal was Carl Browne, a picturesque Westerner, who many years before in California, had been associated with Dennis Kearney, the anti-Chinese agitator.

On March 25, 1894 Coxey's army moved from Massillon to Canton, as the first step in its march. Several thousand were in the aggregation, but the most of them, as it afterward proved, were there more out of curiosity than with any serious object in view. "General" Coxey accompanied the marchers in a buggy, while Browne, clad in the regulation cowboy outfit, led the way on his charger. The young daughter of Coxey was another picturesque figure of the caravan.

By the time the army reached Pittsburgh it had lost more than half of its members. The weather was disagreeable and marching through mud and rain was not to the liking of the marchers. Much dissatisfaction also was expressed over the failure of Coxey to open his purse and provide the wherewithal to purchase food, tobacco, etc., for his "soldiers."

On April 29 the remnant of the army encamped in the suburbs of Washington in readiness for the invasion of the capital. Then came the fiasco which gave a true Gilbertian finale to the whole affair. When the "army" approached the capitol, Major Moore, the Washington chief of police, involked aganst the invaders a law which prohibited public meetings and speaking on the Capitol steps without permission of the Vice President and Speaker. Browne and Coxey tried to get the consent of Vice President Stevenson and Speaker Crisp, unsuccessfully.

When Browne arrived he wore a buckskin "Buffalo Bill" costume to attract attention and draw the police after him in a chase over the southeast lawn of the Capitol among the trees and shrubs. The police, thinking Coxey was with Browne, "beat the bush" for both, but Coxey, who was a small man dressed conventionally, succeeded in eluding the police until he reached the Senate steps.

A great cheer told Browne of the success of his ruse, and then he ran for the House steps, as had been agreed between the two. He was caught by the police and [illegible] convicted of "getting on the grass," Coxey being convicted of being an accessory. Both were sent to jail for twenty days.

After these stirring days Browne married the daughter of Coxey and took up his home in Napa County, Cal., where he is said to have prospered. Coxey returned to his home at Massillon, where he is now rated as one of the town's most prosperous citizens.

HARRY J. DAVIS,
Corporal, Company D, 60th Infantry.

Corp. Davis received the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism in action at Cunel, France, October 14, 1918. While the advance of his platoon was being held up by deadly enfilading fire of the enemy, Corp. Davis voluntarily rushed over open ground, through direct machine gun fire, for a distance of over 100 meters; and, with the aid of his bayonet, attacked the nest. He killed both of the gunners, thereby silencing the fire, but, during the combat, he himself was severely wounded. It was due to his prompt and fearless action that further advance of his platoon was made possible. Corp. Davis' home is in Philadelphia.

J. C. BARCLAY DIED AT EARLY HOUR TODAY

COLLAPSED ON THE STREET

Postmaster John C. Barclay died at the County National Bank at 2 o'clock this morning.

'Squire Barclay, who was stopping at the Windsor Hotel, suffered a violent caughing spell during the night and being unable to sleep got up and putting his street clothes on over his night clothes walked out into the open air for relief.

He came up Market street to the County National Bank corner where he stopped and talked to J. J. Bloom, the night watchman, who was sweeping the sidewalk. He complained to Mr. Bloom of feeling unwell and after stopping possibly five minutes proceeded on up street toward the postoffice.

When he reached Howe's Jewelry store he became very much worse and sat down at the entrance to the store. He called to Mr. Bloom who hastened to his side and then assisted him back to the bank. Drs. Waterworth and Frantz were summoned and when the former arrived at the bank he saw at a glance that Mr. Barclay was a very sick man and immediately called for the ambulance to take him to the hospital. The patient suddenly collapsed and died before the ambulance could get to the scene.

POSTMASTER JOHN C. BARCLAY

John C. Barclay was a native of Indiana county and also spent several years of his life around Punxsutawney. He came to Clearfield some thirty years ago as a school teacher locating in the Third Ward, then West Clearfield borough. He was a staunch Democrat and took an active part in politics. Shortly after taking up his residence in West Clearfield he was elected Justice of the Peace and continued in that office until apponted Postmaster. He was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Prothonotary in 1892 and was defeated for the office by a very narrow margin by the late D. J. Gingery. He served as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1912 being a member of the famous Baltimore convention which nominated Woodrow Wilson over Champ Clark.

In addition to serving as Justice of the Peace Mr. Barclay also engaged successfully in the insurance business. He was a careful business man and amassed considerable property.

'Squire Barclay was an honest, upright man and a good citizen. Genial and generous hearted he was well and most favorably known through this section and his sudden death will bring sorrow to the hearts of many warm friends.

His wife preceded him to the grave by a little more than twelve months His only son Byron M. Barclay was electrocuted while at work as a telephone lineman at Barnesboro, Pa., along about 1913. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Lillian Kelley, wife of Dr. Thomas J. Kelley, of Philadelphia. One brother, George Barclay, of Punxsutawney also survive him, as well as a couple of sisters who live in that section.

Postmaster Barclay was well and favorably known in fraternal circles having been chosen Worshipful Master of Clearfield Lodge, F. & A. M. and High Priest of Clearfield Chapter of Royal Arch Masons as well as being a member of Commandery No. 74 at Philipsburg. Only last evening he spent a couple of hours in the local Masonic rooms and was in the best of mood and feeling. The dozen or so brethren who spent the social hour with him were shocked this morning to hear of his untimely end.

AMERICANISM ABOVE POLITICS

Washington March 25.—(Secial correspondence.—Noting that the President is reported to be in favor of a non-partisan discussion of the league of nations Senators Poindexter and Borah, Republicans, Senator Reed, Democrat, and Mr. Gorge Wharton Pepper, a lawyer of Philadelphia have drawn preliminary plans for the formation of a national non-partisan organization to oppose the acceptance of the constitution of the league of nations as now written. To further emphasize the non-political character of the new association, Henry Watterson, former publisher of the Louisville Courier Journal and a leading Democrat has been chosen president It is said that many Senators who have voiced their opposition to the league will join with the organizers of the anti-league forces in opposing its adoption.

It is announced that a statement soon will be issued outlining the purposes of the organization, one of which will be the coordination of the local bodies throughout the country that have been formed to combat the league. Speakers' bureaus probably will be established, and an intensive campaign of publicity conducted designed to offset the enormous amount of pro-league propaganda that is being circulatd among the people. Although it is understood there is no agreement on the subject the suggestion has been made to send representatives to Paris during the progress of the peace negotiations. Headquarters of the organization probably will be established in New York and voluntary contributions will be relied upon to support its activities.

While the Republicans have taken the lead in opposition to the President's proposed league, they welcome to their ranks in this crisis all men of every party who put their Americanism above political considerations. Already Democrats throughout the country like many of the leaders of that party in the Senate have refused to follow the President into the international chaos where he proposes to lead us and have boldly joined with the Republicans in steadfastly refusing to desert the principles that have brought this nation to the commanding position she now holds among the countries of the world.

Men like Senator Reed, of Missouri, Col. Harvey, of Harvey's Weekly, Col. Watterson, and other leaders who have contributed to the political strength of the Democratic party, have not hesitated to subscribe to the doctrine of "America first," and are now bending their every energy to defeat the sister schemes of their erstwhile party leader They, with the Republicans believe that all that is necessary to preserve our institutions from the taint of internationalism is to call the attention of the people to the provisions of the league's constitution and the inevitable destructive effect its adoption will have upon our form of government. To that end the new publicity organization has been formed with the certain knowledge that as soon as the people are aware of its purposes they will eagerly appeal to it for authoritative and non-partisan information regarding the most momentous question with which they ever have been confronted.

SUBJECT OF THOUGHT ON ACCOMPLISHMENT

THOUGHT WE COULD NOT FINANCE WAR

• • • •

CHANGED OUR MIND AND WE DID IT

• • • •

LET US THINK WE CAN TAKE THE NEXT

The state of our mind has a tremendous influence on our actions and our accomplishments and the state of mind of Patriotic Clearfield countain today very similar to what it was just after the war was declared and we began to get a realization of its responsibilities. We embarked in a thousand and one ways other than that could help Germany with money. Much of this seemed to be just a matter of turning a few dividends over there to "plow" the Hindenburg line and building resorts on the Riviera. That state of mind was the best asset that America had. Our wealth, our regular army, our navy, our ingenuity and our big industrial plants would have been of no avail to us nothing had it not been for the state of mind of the boys who went "over there" with the idea of "finishing the job."

When we entered the war, we were sure in our belief that we could whip Germany but we were not sure that we could finance things which were absolutely necessary to provide the sinews of war. Emperor William, for instance, we were convinced at the big ship program, we scoffed at the idea of raising a million men to Europe and keeping them there, and when our government asked us to raise Billion Dollars in the form of a Liberty Loan., well we honestly said it couldn't be done but we believed what we said. Those who had never saved a cent found their earnings paid no attention to the first appeals to them to buy bonds. Bonds had never entered into their vocabulary but they could not associate buying with working a day for wages or by the month for a small salary. They were made for the man with money and for the banks. In many bakers and men of affairs had that view but they did not agree with the latent pat riotism of the average man who wanted a share in the game. This view almost spelled the doom of the first loan, a great lesson was learned with the coming of every loan, Mr. Ordinary Citizen right in line buying bonds. There is no need to recall the incidents pertaining to the financing of the war thru each succeeding loan campaign. It is fresh in the memory of all.

Today the war is over. There is just as much money in circulation as when the first loan was floated—and more. That old state of mind has returned to hamper the outcome of this, the next loan. It is surprising Liberty Loan. $t is surprising how many men are unconsciously hampering the success of the loan by assuming to speak for the other fellow, and saying, "it is going to be hard to float".

Rgarding the First Loan, these fellows said "it can't be accomplished." But it was.

Regarding the next loan, coming next month, they say, "you can't do it." But we will

And when we say "we" we mean you and you and you, because you and I will have to submit to a change of our state of mind before the launching of the next loan. There is nothing to indicate failure of the next loan except the state of mind. We are masters of our own minds. Let us get the proper mood and make of the next loan a success and a comparatively easy job.

SUNDAY MEETINGS POPULAR

The sunshine and fine weather did not interfere or stop a large crowd of 200 boys and girls and their parents from attending the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon addressed by Secretary Gardner. He took his subject from the book of Zacharias, 8th chapter and 5th verse. There will be boys and girls playing in the streets of Heaven. He paid a great tribute to the boys and girls of our town and his admiration of persons here who would give, sell and do anything that would harm or sear the character and souls of our boys and girls.

He closed his address with a strong plea for the fathers and mothers and girls to assist and use their vote, power and influence in deathless antagnism against the saloon and cigarettes and sin and agencies who would ruin or break our homes, schools and churches. At the close he invited all the young men present to come up to the platform and sign the anti-cigarette pledge card. Over fifty young men and boys signed it and promised not to smoke any more poisonous cigarettes. The meeting next Sunday afternoon will be a mixed meeting for everybody. Mr. Graffius will take for his subject "Philip Nolan, The Man Without a Country." Mr. H. D McNard, a Lyceum reader and entertainer, will give a sacred reading on "Wayward Joe.'

SCHOOL NOTES
(Missed by Censor)

The Junior girls have organized their basket ball team and after getting in trim they will as a matter of accommodation to other teams demonstrate the game as should be played by girls. They have the advantage of a large floor that will give a good chance for passing and also when they get on a floor over two by four they will not get all out of puff.

LOST—A golden opportunity to study; if found please return to any student in the upper study hall during the third period in the morning.

The victory over Altoona was celebrated in chapel. The new "slam bang" yell was prohibited because Mr. Andes said he weighted twenty tons and we might wake up in the gymnasium. But it worked on Altoona—ask their coach.

Reconstruction may be relied on to prevent any more workless days for years to come.

France and England have a bill of $100,000,000,000 against Germany. If this is not enough to keep the Boche at work for the rest of his life, a dozen other allies will put in their little claims.

In Cologne, many ex-German soldiers have resumed their former occupation of waiters. A post of satisfaction, of course, since it will give them opportunity of practicing tyranny over their conquerors.

It is gratifying to learn that order has been restored in Cologne, but one trusts that the camouflage for covering up the lack of a bath which takes its name from the famous city was all poured into the Rhine ere the rioting stopped.

Yesterday a good Maxwell —Today a Better One

THAT is the policy of the Maxwell Motor Company.

It began five years ago on a single chassis plan and today 300,000 Maxwells have been built on this program.

Not 300,000 Maxwells identically alike—for that would be admitting that the car has never improved in five years' time.

More than 1000 refinements have been made in the Maxwell.

But the original chassis plan was not changed. It has simply grown better as the days went by.

The logic of building one thing and thus building it well is too clear, too sound, too emphatic in results to argue against.

Like any fine piece of machinery the Maxwell seems to improve with age.

It runs on and on without end. We have never heard of a Maxwell salvaged.

There is no car with a better road ability record. And it saves many a thrifty dollar by always at the repair shop.

This Maxwell you see today is not a new Maxwell, though many persons have thought so. It has been so much improved in appearance that our contemporaries in the trade repeatedly refer to it as the new Maxwell.

However, good looks have not in any way handicapped its running. And the latter is the main thing, after all, in a motor car.

EFFECT OF COLOR UPON THE DURABILITY OF PAINT.

Property owners who may have under consideration the painting of dwellings and other structures should remember that more durable results are obtained when tinted paints are used. Permanent coloring materials which have been ground by machine into a high grade white paint base have the effect of preventing "chalking" and "checking," two defects which are often observed when white paints are used.

PRETTY COLOR COMBINATIONS.

GREAT SEASON IN SIGHT FOR BASEBALL

With Big League Stars Being Mustered Out of Service People Will Want Sport

MANAGERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

By Tom Lewis
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 24—The old Hot Stove League went out of commission today. The major league baseball clubs are beginning their southward trek and joy rules the heart of the baseball fan.

The clubs are leaving for their respective training camps in fairly good condition, despite the depletions in their ranks caused by the great war, and many of the managers of the big league outfits are optimistic concerning the future. All are agreed, however, that pennant prospects may be affected by the late arrival here of the overseas fighters.

Grover Alexander of the Cubs, for example, may get back in May. Again, he may not arrive in this country before June or July. In normal times Alexander can safely be depended upon to roll up 25 or 30 victories for his club. According to the war department's schedules he is due to reach home with his organization some time in May. But this is far from authentic. Originally, the government planned to bring back 250,000 a month, but this schedule has not been maintained. Three months after the armistice was signed less than 300,000 of the fighting men had been sent home.

Alexander is one among many, and it is safe to predict that big leaguers will be dropping in on their respective managers practically all summer.

This condition may have some good results, however, for the returning men will be in good physical condition and a number of them may arrive on the baseball scene just in time to hop into uniform, seize the old pill and pull a distraught manager out of an extremely embarrassing situation. Complications will arise, as a matter of course, for where one club may draw several top notch players from the ranks of the army at a time when good talent is badly needed, other clubs, less fortunate, will be obliged to tag along until the arrival of the later transports bringing the stars back to their native soil.

John J. McGraw, of the New York Nationals, leaving with his club for the Florida training camp, could not conceal his unbounded joy over the return of Christy Mathewson. "Big Six," in the role of coach and associate manager, will be a tower of strength to the Giants and McGraw has indicated his intention of placing the famous pitcher in a still better position before many months have passed. The Giant leader is anxious to devote more of his time to the business interests of his club and when he decides to step down Matty will go up.

Interest in the national pastime is particularly keen this year, and the baseball managers and owners have predicted a record-breaking season.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mrs. Wm. Bush of Turnpike avenue, was greatly surprised last evening when twenty of the members of her Sunday school class and a few of her intimate friends called at her home to remind her that it was her birthday. The evening was spent in a social manner, music both vocal and instrumental was rendered by Miss Elizabeth Heck and Mrs. C. G. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson delighted the crowd with several of her pleasing recitations. Delightful refreshments were served after which everyone joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." At the conclusion Mrs. Snavely made a very touching prayer asking God to bless Mrs. Bush and her home.

The burglar who has his eye on any of the treasures in the British museum would stand little chance of succeeding, for, after the building is closed to the public, every gallery and room is carefully examined and then locked up. An hour later every room is again searched, thus procuding a double precaution againse fire and burglary. It takes more than an hour merely to examine and lock up the rooms every night. Every one of the policemen who helps to guard the building is also a trained firemand and the hose is so arranged that there is not a spot in the building which these policemen could not swamp with water within two minutes.

I saw it in The Progress.

FOR LUMBAGO

Try Musterole. See How Quickly It Relieves

You just rub Musterole in briskly, and usually the pain is gone—a delicious, soothing comfort comes to take its place.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Use it instead of mustard plaster. Will not blister.

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients.

They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Always dependable.

30 and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

MUSTEROLE

JUNIOR C. H. S. vs. Y. TEAM

Well at last a game has been arranged between the Junior C. H. S. girls and the Y. team. It is to take place at the High school Gym Thursday evening after school.

The Y girls are beginning to see that it doesn't pay to brag. They thought that they were champions but as the Tyrone paper said, "They are now ex-champions." After Thursday night's contest they will be more ex-champs than now according to Shakespeare. Maybe after this game they will see where it pays to strengthen up.

Probably the worst landslide in modern times was the fall of the Rossberg in Switzerland. The Rossberg is made of sandstone and "conglomerate." The whole thing went suddenly, filled a large valley and within a few minutes had completely buried three villages and 900 people.

Cleopatra's Needle, the famous obelisk on the Thames embankment, London, is one solid piece of stone, seventy feet high, and more than one hundred and eightysix tons in weight.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Charles Hooven has purchased the property on corner of Scofield and Susquehanna avenue, South Side from W. B. Smith. Consideration $1,600. The dwelling is occupied at present by John Halton.

Charlie Caldwell, son of Billy Caldwell, had a horse badly injured Saturday. A lot of boys were throwing stones and the animal became frightened and started to get away and in so doing upset the vehicle, causing one of the shafts to pierce its side.

Mrs. S. J. Richards is selling off some of her furniture and will move to the South Side, occupying a part of the Archie Bloom property.

Mrs. Maud Pride has accepted a clerical position in the undertaking establishment of James L. Smith.

The latest news obtainable from the Methodist conference is that Rev. Max Lantz will not be returned to the Curwensville charge, but will go either to Lewistown, Mt. Union or Altoona.

The Penna. Hide and Leather company has a goodly number of orders booked, but are handicapped in getting them on the market owing to the fact that the plant is unable to secure the proper coloring matter, although barrels of it have been on the way for a month or more.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Russell, accompanied by their son William, left yesterday morning for Atlantic City, where Mr. Russell will remain until his health is fully recovered.

Miss Mary Kelly, who is attending college at Rochelle, N. Y., came home yesterday for a few weeks visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kelly.

CARNWATH

Andrew Braid succeeded in bringing down the fox that had been giving him so much trouble and costing him so much ammunition.

Mrs. John Berger has returned from Baltimore where she was visiting her invalid sister. We regret that her report is not very encouraging.

The Carnwath boys are looking forward to the time when they shall have a community building. The coal company has in mind a building that will serve their every need. Supt. James Gray feels that money invested in the welfare of men will give its returns, not only in spirited work but in community interests.

Now is the time to get the drag on the roads. We often wonder why this is not attended to at the proper time.

A large number of requests have have come for a Summer Normal school at this place. Prof. Norris is considering the matter very seriously.

A new plan has been adopted in the public school for the eighth grade The building is kept open each evening of the week from seven until nine o'clock. The eighth grade children may come and do their studying in the school building and when help is needed the teacher is present to render the same. Several of the adults of the town are taking advantage of this opportunity to study and receive help.

The Carnwath school children contributed six dollars ($6.00) to the American committee for relief in the Near East.

Messrs. Kerr and George Sloppy gave our town a very brief social call last week.

Doubtless there will be much farming done in Carnwath this spring, unless the mines start to work full time. Already the garden rake, the robin and blue bird, and the smell of burning rags tell us that spring is here.

The National American Woman Suffrage association has invited the women voters of the United States to join forces with the association at its convention in St. Louis this month as a most fitting memorial to the half century of suffrage campaigns which it has conducted. Except for the women of Wyoming—the state which, as a territory enfranchised its women, and refused to come into the Union without them—every voting women in the United States has won her suffrage under the banner of the National Association.

GORNS, CALLUSES QUIT QUICK!

Two Drops of "Gets-It" Will do it

Ever hand-carve your toe with a knife trying to get rid of a corn? Ever use scissors and snip off part of the corn too close to the quick? Ever pack up your toe with "contraptions" and plasters as though you were packing a glass vase for parcel post? Ever use greasy ointments that rub off on your stockings? Ever use sticky tape that gets jerked off you you put your stocking off? Kind o' foolish, when 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" on any corn or callus gives it a quick, painless, peaceful, dead-sure funeral. Why putter and suffer "Gets-It" stops corn pains, it lets you work, smile and dance, even with corns. It's the common-sense way, the only simple, easy way—peels corns off like a banana peel. Used by millions. It never fails.

"Gets-It" the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Manufactured by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Farmer Jones Springs a Surprise

"What on earth have you b[illegible]r home in the car, exclaimed Nancy Jones as Farmer Jones parks his car out by the "R. F. D." box.

"Wait 'till you see, Nancy."

"Looks as though it might be a piano, or an organ, or something like that," replied the excited Mrs. Jones.

"No it's not a piano, nor an organ, Nancy, but it's something for you to play with, and I miss my guess if you don't like it's music", says Farmer Jones.

"Sakes alive, Jason, I'm just burning up to know what you brought.

We'll have her unloaded in a few minutes and then you'll see."

About ten minutes later a beautiful Model "A" Napanee Dutch Kitchenet was deposited in a farm kitchen nearly as big as the whole of an average city flat.

"Saw it down at Leitzingers store, thought it was about time you had something to help out with your work, Nancy. I've got an automobile and a tractor and all kinds of implement and machinery contraptions to make my work easier. I've ditched plows and quit using horses and only use up-to-date farm equipment. We're goin to give you the new labor-saving equipment too, Nancy."

There's a chance for you farmer men. Drive the old car down town and buy your hard-working wife the one thing that will serve to most lighten the burden of her kitchen drudgery—a Napanee Dutch Kitchenet. Take it home in the car and give her a real happy surprise. Then see how she'll apreciate it—and your thoughtfulness.

The event of the Season

In 1876 Ellen Henrietta Richards, an instructor in Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was elected to full membership in the American Institute of Mining Engineers, being the first woman thus honored.

Why can't Clearfield borough start repaving South Second street and make work for idle men?

DOCTOR SAYS ONE LUNG IS HEALED AND OTHER NEARLY SO

Urges patient to keep up the treatment that did the work.

"I had consumption of the lungs for six years. I had an outside sleeping and dressing room and remained outdoors the year 'round, all the time. I used six raw eggs a day and about a gallon of milk. I had a great many hemorrhages, and was just barely able to walk around the house a little.

"I began taking Miller's Emulsion in June. I have now taken my eighteenth bottle and feel greatly benefitted. I had my doctor examine my lungs the other day and he said that one of them is entirely healed up and the other one nearly so. He urges me to keep on using Miller's Emulsion, which I intend to do. My original weight was 170 pounds. I have remained about that for years and now weigh 195 pounds and feel almost as strong and well as I ever did. My only regret is that I didn't hear of Miller's Emulsion six years ago."—Grady Dees, Hillsville, Va.

Miller's Emulsion would succeed in your case, just as it did in the above cases. It is easy for you to find out. It is at least worth while to try to benefit you, and nothing to try it.

Miller's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritious food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, driving away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Miller's Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the throat and lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and indigestion are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It works like magic on coughs and colds.

Miller's is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Miller's Emulsion under our guarantee—Take six bottles home and use according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Miller Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Leonards Drug Store.

See the New and Better Columbus

YOU have probably heard and know something about that special new wagon feature, the International fifth wheel (patent applied for) which you can find only on International Harvester wagons.

There are several other new and strong points on the Columbus for you to look over when you come in next time. There is the convenient link end box rod. This rod couples in the center, has threaded handle nuts at each end, can be easily tightened at either end, hangs fast to the wagon when uncoupled, and can be entirely removed easily. No more lost or bent end rods or stripped threads when your wagon is the new Columbus.

The accurately-fitting skein and skein box, the gear construction, the straight-grained oak bounds—everything new and better, from tongue to tail board, are right here waiting inspection. Come in and see a real up-to-date wagon.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The torture and discomforts of weak, lame and aching back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nausea, and a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.

Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the loins and lower abdomen, you will find quick and sure relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney trouble and allied derangements has stood the test for hundreds of years. It does the work, pains and troubles vanish and new life and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Do not accept a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes.
